

June 24, 2010

Dine Visited Cantina Laredo in Palm Beach Gardens

An evening with a margarita can never be a bad thing, and such was the case with our last visit to Cantina Laredo. Located in Midtown on PGA Boulevard, Cantina Laredo offers sophisticated Mexican dishes in a chic setting. It's a perfect destination for drinks after work or a relaxed meal with friends.

When guests arrived, they were treated to Gran Centenario Margaritas. It was the first time I tasted this ultra-premium tequila and was happily impressed with how smooth it went down. This family owned line is made from 100% blue agave Tequila and is harvested from plants that range from 10-12 years, giving it the classification of "Extra Anejo."

Guests gathered in good cheer, filled up the bar area and welcomed some new faces into a familiar event location. They also enjoyed some Cantina specialties like chips and salsa, cheese quesadillas and chicken flautas.

Special thanks goes out to Premier Beverage and Cantina Laredo for sponsoring our event.

Cantina Laredo is located at 4635 PGA Blvd, Palm Beach Gardens.

